The Growth of the Earth

Professor Huxley read a paper before the British Association, at its recent meeting at Norwich "On a Piece of Chalk," in which he takes this one of the oldest of the formations which make up the crust of the earth to illustrate the slow process by which through unknown ages the world was made ready for habitation for man.

"A great chapter," he says, "of the history of the world is written in the chalk. I weigh my words well when I assert that the man who should know the true history of the bit of chalk which every carpenter carries about in his breeches pocket, though ignorant of all other history, is likely if he will think his knowledge out to its ultimate results to have a truer and therefore a better conception of this wonderful universe, and of man's relation to it than the most learned student who is deep read in the records of humanity and ignorant of those of nature.

It is certain that the chalk is the mud of an ancient sea bottom, but it is no less certain that the chalk sea existed during an extremely long period, though we may not be prepared to give a precise estimate of the length of that period in years. The relative duration is clear, though the absolute duration may not be definable. The attempt to affix any precise date to the period at which the chalk-sea began or ended its existence is baffled by difficulties of the same kind.

After showing the nature of the chalk and demonstrating its origin, he speaks of subsequent formations.

"The drift of boulder clay in comparison with the chalk is a very juvenile deposit. You need go no farther than your own seaboard for evidence of this fact. At one of the most charming spots on the coast of Norfolk Cromer, you will see the boulder clay forming a vast mass, which lies upon the chalk and consequently have come into existence after it. Huge boulders of chalk are, in fact, included in the clay, and have evidently been brought to the position they occupy by the same agency as that which has planted blocks of syenite from Norway side by side with them.

The chalk, then is certainly older than the boulder clay. If you ask how much, I will again take you no farther than the same spot upon your own coasts for evidence. I have spoken of the boulder clay and drift as resting upon the chalk. That is not strictly true. Interposed between the chalk and the drift is a comparatively insignificant layer containing vegetable matter. But that layer tells a wonderful history. It is full of stumps of trees standing as they grew. Fir trees are there with their cones and hazel bushes with their nuts, there stand the stools of oak and yew trees, beeches and alders. Hence this stratum is appropriately called the forest-bed.

It is obvious that the chalk must have been upheaved and converted into dry land before the timber trees could grow upon it. As the bolls of some of these trees are from two to three feet in diameter it is no less clear that the dry land thus formed remained in the same condition for long ages. And not only do the remains of stately oaks and well-grown firs testify to the duration of this condition of things, but additional evidence to the same effect is afforded by the abundant remains of elephants, rhinoceroses, hippopotamuses, and other great wild beasts, which it has yielded to the zealous search of such men as the Rev Mr Gunn.

"When you look at such a collection as he has formed, and bethink you that these elephantine bones did veritably carry their owners about, and these great grinders crunch in the dark woods of which the forest-bed is now the only trace, it is impossible not to feel that they are as good evidence of the lapse of time as the annual rings of the tree stumps.

"Thus there is a writing upon the wall of cliffs at Cromer, and whoso runs may read it. It tells us, with an authority which cannot be impeached, that the ancient sea-bed of the chalk sea was covered with forest, stocked with the great game whose spoils have rejoiced your geologists. How long it remained in that condition cannot be said, but 'the whirligig of time brought its revenges' in those days as in these. That dry land, with the bones and teeth of generations of long lived elephants hidden away among the gnarled roots and dry leaves of its ancient trees, sank gradually to the bottom of the icy sea, which covered it with huge masses of drift and boulder clay. Sea beasts, such as the walrus, now restricted to the extreme north, paddled about where birds had twittered among the topmost twigs of fir-trees. How long this state of things endured we know not, but at length it came to an end. The upheaved glacial mud hardened into the soil of modern Norfolk. Forests grew once more, the wolf and the beaver replaced the reindeer and the elephant, and at length what we call the history of England dawned."

Mound Builders of Tennessee

STARTLING REVELATIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE EARLY INHABITANTS—IDOLS AND RELICS EXHUMED—THE GREAT NATCHEZ RACE

[From the Nashville Press Oct 22]

Dr Joseph Jones, of our city, delivered, at Masonic Hall, last night, before a large and intelligent assemblage of our citizens, a most instructive and interesting lecture upon the mound builders of Tennessee. In almost all portions of our State are found large artificial mounds, the product of a race of people very different from the savages who were familiar to the early settlers. These relics have often excited the curiosity of those who saw and examined them. During the war when the State was in the hands of the Federal forces, the excavations made at Chattanooga, Knoxville, Murfreesboro, and Nashville, revealed a great many curious remains which were carried away to the North. Previous to the labors of Dr Jones, however, no systematical efforts had been entered into to collect and classify the antiquities and remains of the people who constructed the mounds and built the graves which are so numerous all over Tennessee. The Doctor commenced last year a series of explorations, which he continued with unabated ardor up to within a few weeks ago. The result of his labors in the antiquarian field has been most gratifying. He has succeeded in collecting a finer array of relics and remains than ever was secured of any ... extinct American race. The rostrum of the hall last night was covered with a large number of implements, human remains, vases, mancals, idols, etc, which had been exhumed under his supervision from the mounds of our State. The Doctor gave an account of his researches into a large mound in Giles county. Here in the center of the pyramid, he discovered the remains of a great chief, buried with numerous relics, and around him the skeletons of some of his subjects. Drifting into the sides of this artificial mounds, ashes, bits of pottery and bones of both human beings and animals were found mixed up in one incongruous conglomeration, often with beautiful specimens of vases and shell ornaments. Specimens of the burned crust of these mounds beneath the present soil, were exhibited. Two large stone idols were shown, carved out of a dark iron colored rock, the largest some thirteen inches in height and the other perhaps four inches less in stature. One represents a female, and has the hair gathered up behind under a diminutive sort of water fall, while in the longer specimen that of a male, the hair was represented twisted in a sort of cue not unlike the style of our forefathers in the Revolutionary times. The lecturer, to please the lady hearers gave a short description of the toilet costume of one of the female mound builders. With hair gathered in a graceful knot behind the ears, pierced and filled with huge rings of shell or bone the nose likewise ornamented with an enormous balancing weight, she must have been an alarming creature. Two copper crosses were exhibited together with three vases, the outsides of which were divided into three regular compartments, having three crosses and three crowns, symbolic the Doctor claimed, of the Christian religion, the Trinity and the Virgin Mary. The signs of the Catholic religion he stated were wonderfully prominent in a great many of the relics brought to light. On the great mound near Franklin 240 feet in diameter evidently stood a gigantic temple of the sun. Remains of the ... were found here. Two remarkable vases were exhumed one not unlike a child's toy with toes pointing at the heel and the other surmounted with a carved head with a helmet having a remarkable resemblance to that of a Spanish cavalier. The speaker inferred from this that the extinct people were not unfamiliar with the Spaniards after their conquest in Mexico and Peru ... the ... of the wildest character. He ... the skeleton of a ... the face of which was covered with a curious ... bearing ... hieroglyphics among which could be distinguished perfect triangles. This mound was graced with the stump of a tree which when cut, two ... twenty years ago, could not have been less than two centuries old. An idol exhumed from the mouth of Lick Branch Nashville was also displayed and a small female effigy in white clay with the marks of the cross upon the shoulders. The Doctor everywhere found traces that the aborigines of this country may have come in contact with civilized nations long before the discovery of America by Columbus. He gave a short sketch of the explorations of the Scandinavians, Danes, Islanders, and the colonies they founded in the New World. But to these fearless navigators could not be ascribed the knowledge the mound builders of Tennessee had of the cross and the symbols of religion. It was rather to be referred to a later period, when the early Catholic missions were founded upon the shores of the New World some three hundred years ago. In 1564 the Catholic sovereign of Spain was attacked with a terrible religious zeal and he sent out one Francisco with a large body of co workers to evangelize and convert the Indians. They planted themselves at St Augustine, on the shores of Florida and for twenty five years the missionary was very successful. He founded a great many missions and partially Christianized a great many of the savages. The Spaniards appear to have encouraged marriages between the young people of their own race and those of the Indians, and to have lived with them on terms of the greatest intimacy. The mound builders of Tennessee the doctor thought must certainly have belonged to the Natchez tribe who, coming from the South spread themselves throughout the valley of the Mississippi and its larger branches. When in the height of their empire they probably numbered 500 000. The lecturer thought it extremely curious, the mixture of Christianity and idolatry found among these people. While the great fundamental principles of the true religion were so familiar to them they worshipped stone effigies and adored the sun, and were probably guilty of human sacrifices. The Doctor exhibited a great number of implements of warfare such as stone axes arrow heads, knives spears, etc. Also, culinary utensils, mortars used for grinding Indian corn and paint. The lecture was listened to throughout with the greatest interest, but time fails us for more than a passing sketch of its riches. We understand that a scientific society of the East will soon publish a book, from the pen of Dr Jones, on the antiquities of our State, with particular reference to the mound builders of Tennessee. We feel assured that it will prove one of the most interesting books of the kind ever published in this country.

The Next Congress

NEW FACES NEXT SESSION

[Correspondence Chicago Tribune.]

The next Congress will contain among its new Representatives, notably General Negley and Dan Voorhees, and among the new Senators, Judge Thurman a new face from Indiana, and a new one from Pennsylvania. Conness will depart—another loss of familiar nose, he was one of the articulate pomposities who were released upon public life by the bullet that killed Broderick. Out of the corpse of the lion crawled an inordinate number of little beings, each claiming to be a part of him. And this one was to be Secretary of the Interior in a certain contingency!

Judge Thurman is a respectable rebel, past all most all stages but dotage. He came to the Senate by reason of the marvellous Democratic reaction of 1867 whereby he had nearly reached the Governor's chair, though he was nominated in compliment merely, at a time when it seemed his chances for private life were assured. Missing the Governorship by a thousand or two votes, he attained the Senate by a combination against Vallandigham. He is a good lawyer of the old time, a fairly trained Democratic speaker and he will not probably add one idea or effect one surprise during his whole term.

Dan Voorhees more practical and less egotistical than Vallandigham, will return to the seat from which he was ousted. He has been in Washington a good deal of the time for the past year, he was one of the Chase men at New York. He is a fierce reactionist of talent and pride, as distinguished from mere vanity, like "Val's" and, loving the young ladies and not without Republican friends, is presumable that this time he will be permitted to retain his seat. I was speaking with a prominent Indiana Republican yesterday who said to me, in his own conscience and knowledge he had no doubt that Julian was fairly defeated.

When Voorhees was sent from his seat on a previous occasion, he made a proud and scornful speech picked up his hat and cane and without waiting to hear the vote strode out of Congress. It was amusing and muscular together.

General Negley replaces Moorhead, a good man with ... Negley's ... and idiosyncratic parts. Leonard Myers, of Philadelphia, will be a contrast against Dr Moffit Democrat. Myers is a gentleman without particular force of character. He and a little fellow, a bachelor, named O'Neill, were constantly in Company last Congress both of them having a single idea to steer by—protection to Delaware river iron mills. Although Myers was beaten by a small minority I have no hesitation in saying that he fairly lost his place for the district was always a close one.

The new Senator from Pennsylvania will possibly be taken from some one of the old stock names of politicians. Curtin, Grow, Doc Cameron, Rosatle, Wayne McVeigh and Forney want it. Personally no better gentleman will be returned than was Buckalew, who preferred to disappoint this party rather than to make futile speeches and spring surprises upon the country at the expense of his conscientiousness and dignity. Buckalew was an alert looking man of quiet habits frequently voting against his fellow partisans. He used to be a lover of the flowing bowl but adopted total abstinence several years ago whereby it is said that temperance has spoiled him. The true fact, probably, is that it took out of his tongue that ardent garrulousness which is a good definition of a good deal of speech making and bringing the man to his senses, taught him to be still except when he could be useful or interesting. He had more art than Hendricks, who was more often apparently that really statesman like giving little perfunctory and intriguing on considerable ones. In these days it is a rare distinction to be a gentleman of honor in intruding one's mistaken or conceited individualities upon the ... of ... check your hobby instead of galloping it unquarried and unkempt, into the drawing room of the State. I have looked down upon the two houses a good deal, and I find that among the prominent sitters there the chief class is the Pivotals, of those who wheel on some one subject whether it be a prejudice or a principle. Mr Sumner is a double pivot for example. His foreign policy has no consistency or correspondence with his domestic policy. In the correspondence with domestic policy ... he is a man of empire ... as Marcy or Webster ... in his domestic affairs he is a ... concerned with material ambitions for the State. He ... through the Congressional Library refers all home subjects to ... of ... "Human ... of course ... to the old races of Jackson ... he is material as "Old Hickory" himself. This is ... a ... for an American Senator but the people of this country are already materialists to excess in their domestic concerns but without any popular policy toward the rest of the world. Sumner is to return to the Senate of course where he is an exception and an ornament.

It appears that in some sections of Virginia the whites went through the farce of voting on Tuesday for Presidential Electors. They had a full ticket of ten names and ballots were cast at Alexandria, Lynchburg, and probably some other points. How many were polled, and by whom they were received, is not yet ascertained.

THE BOWELS OF THE EARTH.—W. Frank Stewart says in a recent communication to the San Jose Patriot, that ever since the great earthquake which many of the people of the San Jose valley are in dread lest the ground may open and swallow them up. He writes to allay these fears, and, in so doing says:

"At the depth of from 50 to 300 feet below the surface of the lands surrounding the southern end of the bay of San Francisco, there is a fresh water lake or basin, filled with antediluvian logs, bones of extinct animals, gravel, sand and fresh water. Immediately overlying this subterranean lake is a sort of lid or crust of blue clay, which is extremely tenacious and impervious to air or water. Above the stratum of tough clay rests the strata of drift and alluvium forming the external, or surface portions of the valley. It is evident that the waters of this subterranean lake are separated from the waters of the bay by a wall or rim of rocks, otherwise our artesian wells would become saline. Now, if we can imagine an underground lake or saturated bed of gravel many miles in width hermetically sealed by a substantial and impervious lid, so that it may lie in the earth at an angle of 20 or 30 degrees, like a ... A vessel with one side elevated, we then can form a very just conception of our artesian basin, and give a reason why the water flows out with such force at the surface when the basin is tapped. During an earthquake all bodies lose temporarily, a portion of their specific weight, and light matter, such as water, has a tendency to fly upward. This tendency to fly upward facilitates the ... hydraulic pressure of our confined artesian basin, and causes the swaying sand and water to break through the overlying clay lid at 'the thinnest places.' This accounts rationally for the fissures and mud upheavals at Milpitas and other localities. In short, the abrasions are wholly attributable to aqueous and not to igneous action, as many have supposed."

General Prim, the new Spanish War Minister, is a soldier of fortune. He was a Colonel at the age of 25, was elected from Barcelona to the Cortes in 1840, ...ted Spain at Constantinople during the Crimean war, distinguished himself in the war against Morocco and in the Mexican expedition, was twice exiled, but has returned to his native land triumphant, and is now unquestionably the most popular man in Spain.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 24, 1868

Carried by Fraud

[illegible] the [illegible] most says the following was published in the New York papers the day after the election as a true copy of a circular sent a few days before to leading Democrats throughout the State of New York:

Private and strictly confidential.
Rooms Democratic State Committee,
[illegible] Nov. [illegible]

"MY DEAR SIR: Please at once communicate with some reliable person in three or four principal towns and in each county of your county and request them to telegraph to Wm. M. Tweed, Tammany Hall, and at the minute of closing the polls, not waiting for the count, such person's estimate of the vote. Let the telegraph be as follows: 'This town will show a Democratic gain of [illegible] over last year of [illegible]' or this one if sufficiently certain: 'This town will give a Republican or Democratic majority of [illegible].' There is of course an important object to be attained by a simultaneous [illegible] up to the hour of closing, but no longer writing. Opportunity can be taken of the usual half lull in telegraphic communication over the lines before actual results begin to be declared, and before the Associated Press absorbs the telegraph with returns and interferes with individual messages, and give [illegible] watch carefully the count. Very truly yours, [Signed] SAM'L J. TILDEN, Chairman."

Of course the object of this can be seen at a glance. It was issued in order that the Democratic managers might be informed how large a vote it would be necessary to cast in the city to overthrow the Republican majority in the State. If they could know this, all that would be required would be to keep the repeaters voting until a sufficiently large majority could be secured. The suspicion of the New York Republicans that this course was adopted is confirmed by the above circular, by the conduct of the Democratic canvassers in the city delaying the counting, and by the enormous vote which was thrown, or at least counted, in the city. According to the figures the whole vote has increased nearly one-third, and the Democratic majority has nearly doubled, since 1864. Hoffman claims over 70,000 majority in the city. If the present management goes on, the majority will be increased to 250,000 in a short time, or as soon as that number may be wanted. Well may the Evening Post declare that "in view of the frauds, Hoffman appears to have very much the same right to be Governor of New York that the receiver of stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen, has to property for which he pays one-fourth of its value in money and the balance in reputation."

The Last Hope

Many of the Eastern Democratic journals have commenced speculating thus early upon the course of the new administration. The New York Herald leads off in these vaticinations in this style:

> "Let us have peace" is Grant's motto, and we look to see these words converted into acts—to see the olive branch substituted for the sword in the Southern States, negro supremacy quietly superseded, and such measures adopted as will create harmony out of discord in the genial and fruitful portion of our country, comprised in the States now suffering from a mistaken and vindictive policy.

The evening Democratic paper of Washington, the Express, believes that Grant is made of the same stuff as Johnson, and indulges its hope that he will apostatize, in this language:

> We confess that we view the prospect with no displeasure, for it foreshadows what many who voted against General Grant believed at the time to be the real views of the great chieftain, viz: That, conservative as he had always shown himself to be, he would see to it that the executive department of the government should be administered in the interest of the conservatives, to the end that he might realize peace; that by so doing he would be antagonized by the Radical element of the party that supported him, and that in so doing ultimately he would be found leaning for support upon the grand old Democratic organization.

Even John T. Hoffman, the fraudulently elected Democratic Governor of New York, in a recent speech expressed a hope that President Grant would turn out to be a full blown "Conservative," and carry out the doctrines of the New York platform on which Seymour and Blair have met with such a crushing defeat. These persons seem to forget the somewhat important fact that the people have endorsed the Congressional plan of reconstruction, and not the Tammany platform; that Grant has continually said that he would have no policy of his own to enforce against the will of the people, and that all his past actions are fully in accordance with this doctrine.

HAMPTON.—The Sacramento Union says of Wade Hampton: "Aristocrat as he is he has always been superior to that brutal inhumanity toward the colored race which characterizes the words and acts of the Northern Democracy. A man who boldly demanded and assumed the right to take his colored servants with him in Philadelphia cars before the war, when the local law forbade it, declaring that he would not permit the nurse of his children to be expelled, but that since she was good enough to ride with him, others must suffer it, law or no law—such a man is a good subject for Northern doughfaces, conservatives and intolerant demagogues to study."

APPLICATION OF AN OLD FABLE.—A diminutive city print, celebrated for nothing except its total lack of intellectual virility, undertakes to pass censure upon the OREGONIAN. There is an old fable of a fly and an ox: the insect had alighted upon the ox's horn, and with great self-importance informed the animal that if its weight was oppressive it would fly away. To this pompous speech it got for an answer the remark that it was too contemptible to be noticed.

A BEAUTIFUL SYSTEM.—Nearly all the Democratic papers of Oregon are trying to comfort themselves in the hour of their defeat by descanting on the beauties of slavery. As one of the principal beauties of that system was the selling of likely girls nearly white for the purposes of prostitution, it is a congenial task for such Democratic editors as Abbott and Brown to defend its blessed memory.

NEW ORLEANS.—The true figures of the election in New Orleans are 24,637 Democratic and 276 Republican. These figures show that the rebels in that city have been allowed to intimidate the Unionists and prove that in all the [illegible] with riot and bloodshed [illegible] the rebel Democrats have [illegible] aggressive party.

THE SENATE.—The changes in the political composition of the United States Senate will amount to a virtual extinction of the Northern Democracy in that body. The only Democrats from Northern States who will sit in that body after the 4th of March will be one from each of the States of Ohio, Minnesota, California and New Jersey.

Earthquake in California

The San Francisco Times publishes an interesting history of earthquakes in California so far as the same have been recorded, [illegible] going back to traditions of the pre-historic period, but takes only those facts which are well authenticated. The first earthquake in California of which there is any record [illegible] evidence were felt in 1770 in San Gabriel, where a mission had been established by Franciscan friars. On the 29th of March, 1806, the church at Santa Inez was [illegible], and on the 21st of June 1808 San Francisco saw the beginning of an earthquake season which lasted for weeks and [illegible] twenty-one shocks. Adobe walls, the only buildings there, were seriously damaged. The most destructive earthquake of the [illegible] occurred on the 8th December 1812, when the belfry of the church at San Juan Capistrano fell while the Indians were at mass, and 39 persons were killed. On the 21st of the same month the church at Santa Inez was ruined, and the Mission buildings at San Buenaventura and Santa Barbara were damaged. At the latter place there was a tidal wave, [illegible] people living near the beach saw the sea receding and they ran away in time to escape the return of the water. The church at Santa Clara was thrown down in 1818. These were the only noteworthy shocks previous to 1850 of which any account is given. After 1850 the next considerable shock was felt in Sierra county, on the 24th of January, 1855, and it is reported that a point of rock on the Downieville Peak, 100 feet high, was broken off and tumbled far down the mountain side. At Los Angeles in the same year, on the 10th of July, many walls were cracked, and the shock was accompanied by rain, which is very rare at that season of the year, and thunder, which is very rare at any season. All the towns from Santa Rosa to Monterey felt a lively shock on the 15th of February, 1856, which threw down the fresh cornice of a brick building on Battery street, in San Francisco. Probably the most severe earthquake of the State was one which occurred on the 9th of January, 1857, but its force was spent chiefly in the neighborhood of Tejon Pass, which had little property to be injured and few people to be alarmed. At San Diego, San Fernando and San Buenaventura houses were damaged, and near Tejon a beam of a house fell and killed a woman, the only one killed in a house in California since the American conquest. The effect of earthquake on water is singular. It would be presumed by persons without experience that a movement of the earth's surface sufficient to throw all the water out of a wash bowl would be sufficient to knock down a brick house, but bowls in brick houses have often been emptied and the buildings were not injured. In the earthquake of 1857 the water was thrown out of the beds of the Mokelumne and Santa Clara rivers and out of a well at Santa Barbara, the surface of the water in which was four feet below the surface. Kern river even ran up stream for a short distance. A number of buildings were injured in San Jose on the 26th of November, 1858. On the 3d July, 1861, Amador Valley was severely shaken, and on February 26th, 1864, Santa Cruz was badly handled. The shock of October 21st, 1865, shook down several cornices, and cracked a number of buildings in San Francisco, but was more severe at San Jose and Santa Cruz. The shock of the 21st ult. was most felt at Haywood, and did most damage there relatively. It is said that under the loamy surface of the soil there is a stratum of quicksand which certainly would not furnish a very solid foundation. After considering all the accessible accounts of earthquakes in California the Alta concludes that people may as well stay and take their chances of getting hurt or killed.

Shall the Laws be Enforced?

What are grand juries for? This is really becoming a serious question, when grand juries will no longer take cognizance of offences committed against the laws of the State. The laxity with which our elections are conducted has always been a subject of remark. The laws are stringent enough, but though it is well known that many persons vote illegally in every election, no effort has ever been made to punish illegal voting. Men are challenged, they swear their votes in, and that is the last ever heard of the matter. And when an attempt is made to bring notorious offenders to justice (such attempt has recently been made in this county) the grand jury ignores the whole matter. We have it from unimpeachable authority that information of illegal voting in the late election was laid before the grand jury of this county last week; that complete evidence was furnished to establish the fact, and yet the grand jury refused to find bills of indictment. The evidence showed that thirteen men who had been soldiers in the regular army, and who had been out of service but a few weeks—not half long enough to have gained a residence in the State—voted in this city on the 3d inst. The date of the expiration of their terms of enlistment was proved by documentary evidence from the military department, and the whole matter was laid before the grand jury in extenso, yet this flagrant violation of law passed unnoticed. It is now advertised to the world that these operations may go on in this county with impunity. The legal voters have no rights which may not be trampled on by imported vagabonds. Grand juries are no longer either useful or ornamental; they are simply an expense which custom has sanctioned and which is retained through prejudice and habit. The Constitution says the Legislature may abolish grand juries, and if they do not perform their duty any better than this, the Legislature cannot take the step too soon. When an institution established for the purposes of justice becomes a nuisance as well as a humbug, when it becomes a protector instead of a prosecutor of crime, it is high time to abate it.

OUR LIMBLESS ARMY.—Government offered, some time ago, to supply artificial limbs to maimed soldiers at the public expense. Only about 6,000 have yet availed themselves of the privilege. These represent, however, but a small portion of the whole body of the limbless army. Before Congress made the offer thousands had supplied themselves with limbs. The Government was slow and niggardly in performing this act of justice. The Surgeon General's and other records furnish information which justifies an estimate that the maimed force of the country is fully 50,000.

A CONSPIRACY.—A somewhat noted [illegible] of [illegible] Mr. Chevy Slyme, once exclaimed: "Society is in a conspiracy against me. I'm the most literary man alive. I'm full of scholarship. I'm full of genius. I'm full of information. I'm full of novel views on every subject; yet look at my condition. I'm at this moment obliged to two strangers for a tavern bill." This is very much the condition of the organ, as drawn by Dickens. The sheriff appears to be listed with society in the same general conspiracy against that "most literary" institution.

FROM THE NORTH

VICTORIA, Nov. 23.—Mr. Philip Hawkins, late Superintendent of Police in this city, has been appointed Colonial Secretary of British Columbia. It is said he is now on his way from England to fill his new position. Mr. Young, the present acting Colonial Secretary, will probably return to England on the arrival of Mr. Hawkins.

The stock of the Vancouver Coal Company at Nanaimo has risen fifty per cent in the London market. The company has declared a dividend of 2½ per cent for the last six months. It is also announced that the directors of the Vancouver Coal Company have joined with other British Columbians in a petition to the Canadian Government to have this Colony included in the Canadian reciprocity bills.

Colfax at Pittsburg

On the 13th inst., Hon. Schuyler Colfax made a speech at Pittsburg, from which we extract the following:

There are two sharply defined questions which have been settled by the voice of the people. The Democratic platform declared, in that portion of it written by Wade Hampton, that the reconstruction measures of Congress were unconstitutional, revolutionary and void, and the American people trampled that platform under their feet as they had trampled the platform which four years before declared the war a failure, and demanded a cessation of hostilities. The voice of the people from whose decision there is no appeal has declared that the reconstruction measures of Congress are not unconstitutional, revolutionary or void. We have declared that the voice of the people is to be obeyed, and the laws are to be enforced whether rebels like them or dislike them. The second principle which has been settled by the popular vote is that every man has a right to go south or north, east or west, so long as he is devoted to the principles of our flag, and be protected against outrage and wrong. To-day the only places in this broad land where the people are prevented from singing the battle songs of the war, such as "Down with the Traitors and up with the Stars," is in the blood stained fields of the South where your soldiers fell. You could sing those songs among the banditti of the Alps, or among the thugs of India. The only place where you could not sing them is over the graves of dead soldiers. But we are going to have a land so free and so loyal, presided over by a man so true to his country, that you may sing those songs anywhere. I speak of President Grant, from his own utterances. You will mind, before he wrote those magnetic words, "Let us have peace," if you look back to his acceptance speech when the committee waited upon him—and I remember hearing the words as I afterwards read them—that he said he was for peace, and quiet and protection everywhere, and what he says he generally means. He will bring to the duties devolving upon him as President the same energy, the same will that has characterized him, and when he says there shall be peace and quiet and protection everywhere let traitors beware, for he means what he says and will carry it out. I can tell you one thing, my friends. This party that has been struggling for the supremacy and carried two Northern States, New York and New Jersey—by unblushing frauds; that has carried six Southern States by the votes of men who had no sympathy with your flag, that that party will never appear before you again until they have secured new leaders, and they will have to get some new principles, besides. I do not think Wade Hampton will make any more platforms for the Democratic party. I do not think Vallandigham will nominate any more Presidents. I do not think Preston and Forrest will nominate any more Vice Presidents.

As for the future under the administration of President Grant, I look forward to an era of peace and prosperity—an era of development in all manufacturing and agricultural industries which are the very backbone of any nation beneath the orb of the sun. With Grant's zeal to stop every wasteful expenditure of your treasury and his opposition to every attempt to imperil your business with Grant, who, under a Divine Providence, has been called to fill the Presidential chair, I trust we shall have a future of unexampled public prosperity.

The Oregon and California Railroad

The Butte (Cal.) Record has the following on this topic:

The almost certainty that the Feather River Railroad will be built leaves this Congressional District in but little doubt concerning its future prosperity. The Valley road is now completed to Sacramento city. The Humboldt Railroad we suppose to be in a fair state of progress, and the question now is what is doing or going to be accomplished by the Oregon and California Company? There is much to hope for in the way of railroads on the Pacific coast, from the fact that the Union Pacific Company are coming this way with railroad speed, and their construction material will have to be employed somewhere. And when we add to this fact that the Central Pacific Company have not gone far enough east to throw construction material away from us, it will be patent that all the railroads must be built on the Pacific coast when the line across the continent shall have been completed. This great road, or roads, if we are to have two of them, will require feeders extending up and down the Pacific coast, and the material and nerve for their construction will be here. Not precisely understanding the [illegible] Oregon, it is somewhat difficult to judge exactly what may be done with regard to the Oregon and California Railroad. The Oregon Legislature have recently [illegible] to what is termed the East Side Railroad Company. This, we think, supposed meant a line of railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Centerville in Nevada to connect with the Central Pacific [illegible] introduced into the last Congress. But we are informed by gentlemen conversant with the question that the East Side Company of Portland means the California and Oregon Company and a railroad to the Sacramento [illegible]. We are further informed, from an equally [illegible] source, that the [illegible] of the road [illegible] the California and [illegible] next two years. We [illegible] may prove correct, and [illegible] Northern California [illegible]. The [illegible] Northern California as now defined [illegible] and [illegible] the Oregon and the [illegible]. Spread out a map before you, reader, and draw a line from San Francisco to Humboldt Bay, another through the Sacramento Valley from San Francisco to Portland, and another from the Sacramento Valley up the Feather river to the eastern line of the State, and the main lines of projected railroads for the Northern Congressional District will be before you. Upon this subject the Yreka Union has the following:

The great trans-continental railway is being pushed forward with unprecedented rapidity toward a final completion. It seems almost certain now that before we celebrate another Fourth of July men will be able to travel by rail from San Francisco, the emporium of the Pacific, across the continent to the valley of the Mississippi and the Atlantic seaboard. When this great miracle of the nineteenth century shall be finally achieved we will then more than ever feel our need of railroad connection with the great highways of travel and marts of commerce. We believe the Central Pacific Railroad Company own the land grants and franchises of the California and Oregon Railroad. And we have been informed that Stanford, the President of the Central Pacific Company, declares it to be his purpose as soon as the overland road is completed to commence and push forward with the utmost vigor the California and Oregon road. If this should be the case, [illegible] we are interested not merely in having the road built at an early day, but still more in the question of its location. We cannot ignore the existence of a project to divert the road from the line of the Elliott survey after reaching the upper end of the Sacramento valley and carrying it thence up through the Pitt River valley and out to Goose Lake, to connect there with a projected road from Oregon across to the Humboldt. This scheme should be closely watched and defeated if possible. If it should be adopted we will be left without railroad communication for an indefinite period to come.

FRANK BLAIR.—A dispatch to the Chicago papers of the 6th inst. states that Frank Blair had been on a drunken spree for several days at Paterson, New Jersey. He was in a fearfully demoralized condition.

Judge Chase curtly says that his political break-down arises from the fact that he loves the white man too much for the Republicans and the negro too much for the Democracy.

CHARITY.—A large class of people professing to be virtuous [illegible] to be charitable [illegible] the least virtue a person can possess. It is not always by giving money to the poor or assisting the afflicted that a person can only show their charity. A good advice is often better than money. For instance, meeting a person who wishes to purchase a common or fine suit of clothes or any other article in the Clothing or Dry Goods line, is it not a charitable act toward that person to recommend them to go to Kohn & Fishel, and being certain that at that House they can purchase at the lowest rates and receive good goods, and where the most particular can be satisfied?

PROSPECTS.—It is known to all that the granaries of our interior are full of wheat—fuller by many of bushels in the aggregate than in former This fact, in connection with the low price and a market, awakens some concern as to what is to be with our crop. The prospect is no better in California. The Commercial Herald says:

DEAD BODY FOUND.—Mr A Knapp, Jr, Superintendent of Pacific Cement Works at Knappville, writes, Nov 16th, as follows: On the 14th inst the body of a man, supposed to have been drowned, was found a little below this place, by J Lumley and brother near their place, drifted ashore in the flood wood. There being no officer here or nearer than ten or twelve miles to act upon the case according to law a party of some six or eight men returned with the body to view it and decide what course to pursue. Among the number were three gentlemen from Astoria and vicinity. All decided best to bury the body, but there not being sufficient time it was not attended to until the forenoon of Sunday, when there were eighteen persons present. Deceased had the appearance of having lain a long time in the water, and when buried was in a high state of putrefaction, and greatly swollen, half of head and beard nearly gone, what remained was black, or dark brown, a few grey hairs on the cheek. He was about 5 ft 8 to 8 inches high, stout built, and from 30 to 40 years of age, no indications of any violence having been committed upon the person. Had on a good working suit as follows: small checked white and black undershirt, with pearl buttons, blue woolen overshirt, smoked pearl buttons, of large size, red flannel drawers, black pants with verdict thread of white, brown colored vest, with black rubber buttons, pair kip boots, leather belt strap, with buckle. Mark on inside of left arm just below elbow—A H S. Just below the A H were the letters H B, mark on inside of right arm half way between elbow and wrist—a crucifix standing on a base, on each side of crucifix is an altar. There was also some word or sentence printed there, but could not be distinguished. I understand a pocket knife and one or two keys and a book were found in his pockets, the book is washed all to pieces. It is entitled "Key to Heaven." Please make an item of this as his friends may by the description learn his fate. It is supposed the body drifted ashore where found during or since the late severe storm. The marks above mentioned were in red and blue ink.

OH! AH!—The following stunner is from the Seattle Intelligencer: "It is reported to us that the 'Sound' country is the chief topic of conversation in Portland. Many declare that they would sell out if they could, for they are convinced of the future greatness of this country. Others are settling up their business in that city with the view of coming here." Oh! Ah!

THE FRIENDS of Mr. J. H. Smith, who has been for some time incapacitated for business by paralysis, desire to tender their acknowledgements to Mr. Weidler, agent of the steamship company, for generous assistance rendered the unfortunate man in reaching his friends at San Francisco.

SAILED.—The steamship Oriflamme sailed at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, for San Francisco. The George S. Wright sailed, also, at a later hour, for Victoria.

PUGET SOUND FISH.—At the Puget Sound Market, foot of Salmon street, may be found fresh fish from Puget Sound, received last evening per steamer Active.

THE RIVER.—The late cold, dry weather, has had a damaging effect upon navigation, the rivers having fallen to nearly as low a stage as during the smoky season.

TERPSICHOREAN.—The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Terpsichorean Club will take place this evening at McCann's Dancing Hall.

A CARD.

It having been represented by certain parties, including at least one of the attorneys for plaintiff, that the jury in the recent case of Henry W. Heath, plaintiff vs Doctors Glisan and Wilson stood eight for finding a verdict in favor of plaintiff Heath, to four for defendants, we the undersigned, jurors in said case, in justice to all parties concerned, do hereby certify that when we first went out we stood as follows: Eight for defendants, three for plaintiff and one blank; on second ballot we stood nine for defendants and three for plaintiff; on fifth ballot we stood ten for the defendants and two for plaintiff. The juryman who up to this time had voted for plaintiff and who on this ballot had changed to defendants stating that he had been in favor of finding a verdict for defendants from the first, but had voted the other way simply to get an expression. About the eighth or ninth ballot we stood eleven for defendants and one—Henry Trooney—for plaintiff; this was the standing of the jury until discharged by the Court and we further certify that in our judgment the evidence and the law as given to us on the trial completely vindicated defendants from all blame.

The Chinawoman who was shot in the breast and arm by her crazy husband at Salem, a few weeks ago, has been entirely cured in three weeks time by the skill of this celebrated physician.

Witness, W. O. BAKER.

What the Illustrious Abernethy said.—"Well, sir, what is the matter?" said Abernethy, the great English surgeon to a cadaverous looking patient, who had called to consult him. "Oh, nothing serious," was the reply, "my stomach and liver are out of order, that's all." "Do you call that nothing serious?" said Abernethy; "I tell you sir, that when these two organs are out of order, as you call it, there's not a square inch of the body that is not more or less diseased, nor a drop of blood in it that is in a healthful condition." Nothing can be more true, therefore it is of the very highest importance to keep the stomach and liver in a vigorous condition. If the one is weak and the other irregular in its action, tone and control them with HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS—the most genial vegetable Restorative and Alterative that has ever been administered as a cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Disease. It is recommended by distinguished surgeons and physicians of the United States Army, by officers of the Army and Navy, by our first authors, by eminent clergymen—in fact, by thousands of the most intelligent of every class, as an unequalled protective against epidemic and malarious diseases, and as a perfectly innocuous, but at the same time powerful, invigorant and alterative.

The Importance of a Correct Decision!—Thousands of persons suffering from the effects of a cold, apparently trifling, delude themselves with the too common idea that it is of little consequence, and will soon wear off, when, in fact, it is the first note of a death knell, unless it be promptly decided to use "NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP," the most effective remedy known, for the speedy cure of colds, coughs, pain in the breast, and the usual premonitory affections of the chest, that precede consumption.

We pledge ourselves to make no representations in relation to Redington & Co's Florida Water, which will not be verified in every case by its use, and positively assert, that no Foreign or American article can be found possessing superior virtues, or equalling it, especially in these two points of exquisite and enduring fragrance, and in the delicate blending of ingredients in its preparation.

Genius finds its own road and carries its own Lamp.—So it is with DR. E. COOPER'S BALM. It recommends itself, those who have tried it will tell you so. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera, Cramps and all other complaints of this nature.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

CELEBRATED
AROMATIC
SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON:

I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of Oregon to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, a medicinal Drink of eminently salutary qualities manufactured by myself exclusively at my factory at Schiedam, in Holland.

In Gravel, Gout and Rheumatism, in Obstructions of the Bladder and Kidneys its effects are prompt, decided and invariably reliable.

It is now some twenty years since the Proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over 3,000 letters from physicians, endorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality selected with great care from the productions of the most celebrated grain growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic juniper berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced on the and bowels by a change of water—a visitation to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons are peculiarly liable—the

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

Will be found absolutely infallible, while in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

Are you WEAK, DEBILITATED, NERVOUS? Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart or an inclination to melancholy? Diseases of such nature require a prompt DIURETIC, which will be found in Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps.

Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps

Laws of Oregon

An Act to appropriate Funds for the Construction of a Canal and Locks at the Willamette Falls.

Whereas, The Willamette Falls Canal and Lock Company was organized under the laws of Oregon on the [illegible] day of September, [illegible] for the purpose of constructing a canal and locks [illegible] the Willamette Falls.

And Whereas, It is of great importance to the people of Oregon that obstructions to the free navigation of the Willamette river should be removed, and freight carried at the [illegible] therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon: That the State of Oregon hereby agrees and pledges itself to pay to the Willamette Falls Canal and Lock Company the sum of money [illegible] as hereinafter set forth out of the funds donated by the United States to the State of Oregon for the purpose of internal improvements.

Sec. 2. In order to entitle the said corporation to receive the sum of money hereby agreed to be paid, it shall be the duty of the said corporation to construct a canal and locks at and on the west side of the Willamette Falls; the said locks to be not less than one hundred and [illegible] feet in length and forty feet in width, and to be constructed chiefly of stone, and constructed in a substantial [illegible] built in a durable and permanent manner. The said canal and locks to be completed on or before January 1, 1871. And after the completion of the same the said corporation shall pass without delay through said canal and locks all steamboats, flatboats, barges and other water craft in the order in which they shall arrive at either terminus of said canal.

Sec. 3. The State of Oregon agrees to pay said sum of money upon the express condition that the said corporation, after the completion of said canal and locks, as hereinbefore set forth, shall not, for a period of ten years after the same is completed, charge a greater rate of tolls than seventy five cents per ton for all freight and twenty cents for each passenger passing through the said canal and locks in steamboats and other water craft. And after the said period of ten years the said corporation shall not charge a greater rate of tolls than fifty cents per ton for freight and ten cents for each passenger going through said canal and locks. And at the expiration of twenty years from the time said canal and locks are completed the State of Oregon shall have the right and privilege to take and appropriate to its own use forever the said canal and locks upon the payment to the said corporation of the actual value thereof, at the time of taking and appropriating the same, which value shall be ascertained in such manner as the Legislative Assembly of Oregon may hereafter prescribe.

Sec. 4. No part of the said money shall be paid to the said corporation, until the said canal and locks shall be constructed in the manner hereinbefore provided. And upon the completion thereof, the sum of twenty five thousand dollars in gold coin, shall be paid by the State of Oregon to the said corporation, and the like sum of twenty five thousand dollars, in gold coin shall be paid every year thereafter, until the said sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be fully paid. The said several sums of money shall be paid out of the fund arising from the five per centum of the net proceeds of the sales of the public lands of the United States lying within this State, or, in case the same shall be insufficient to pay the said sums, the same shall be paid out of the interest on the fund arising out of the sale of the five hundred thousand acres of land donated to the State of Oregon, for the purpose of internal improvements by the act of Congress, entitled "An Act to appropriate the proceeds of the sales of the public lands, and to grant pre-emption rights," approved September 4, 1841, or, in case the interest on the said fund shall be insufficient to pay the said sums of money specified in this act, then the same shall be paid in part out of the principal of the said fund.

Sec. 5. The faith of the State of Oregon is hereby pledged for the payment of the said sums of money, to the said corporation, as hereinbefore set forth in this act, upon the express condition that the said corporation shall construct the said canal and locks in the manner before provided in this act, and not charge a greater rate of tolls than is herein set forth. And it is further provided, that the payment of said several sums of money shall be made, upon the express condition that the said corporation shall pay to the State of Oregon ten per cent of the net profits arising from tolls collected for passing freight and passengers through said canal and locks for the period of ten years from the time of the completion thereof; and five per cent of said net profits after the expiration of said period of ten years.

Sec. 6. The State of Oregon shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of the said canal and locks as hereinbefore expressed, and any sums of money not then refunded to the State, of the amount paid by the State to said Canal and Lock Company, shall then be taken by the State out of the purchase money.

Sec. 7. The said Canal and Lock Company shall be required to expend the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, before the 1st day of January, 1870, and the whole work completed, on or before the 1st day of January, 1871, or if the above conditions are not complied with the above mentioned sums of money shall then be paid and any other rights given the Company by the State, under this act, shall be declared forfeited.

Sec. 8. On the completion of the said canal and locks, the Governor shall appoint three commissioners to examine the works and report thereon, and if, from the report of the commissioners, the works are completed as hereinbefore specified, then, the above mentioned sums of money shall be paid.

Approved Oct. 20, 1868.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1868.

Eighteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a Journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence, and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST but to everything that [illegible] to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,

AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS

or

Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

TELEGRAMS FROM

are published as full as in the California Journals and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

The most important National Election ever held in the United States is now approaching. The dissemination of valuable political information among the people is a matter of the highest consequence. The Republic must not go back to the so-called Democratic interpretation of the powers of the Government, to the great cause which precipitated the late conflict on the country. The principles which were upheld on the battle-field must be sustained at the ballot box, and the OREGONIAN will labor with assiduity to secure that end.

TERMS:

One Year	$3 00.
Six Months	2 00.
Three Months	1 00.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.

Subscribers will find on each paper with their names the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered in our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written.

All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.

☞ REMIT BY MAIL AT OUR RISK, in presence of Postmaster, or pay to the nearest authorized agent.

We ask our friends to aid us in extending the circulation of the OREGONIAN in every direction.

CHANGE OF NAME!

MERCADO & CO., SUCCESSORS TO Mercado & Seully, have been obliged for their own protection and the safety of the public to change the name of their celebrated Bitters to

MERCADO'S

Native California Wine

BITTERS

We subjoin the following affidavit in an injunction suit formerly pending between Mercado & Seully, plaintiffs, and [illegible], defendant:

[illegible] Salmsevain being duly sworn says: That the article known as Salmsevain's California Wine Bitters was manufactured by Mercado & Seully [illegible] month of March 1860, without the said Salmsevain [illegible] there having been any [illegible]. The deponent has always known and [illegible] said Mercado & Seully as the sole proprietors of the Salmsevain California Wine Bitters.

Notwithstanding the above affidavit the said P. Salmsevain is putting up a compound under the name of Salmsevain's California Wine Bitters, representing it to be the same as our celebrated Bitters, which we have been manufacturing and selling in immense quantities since 1860, and also affixing a nearly similar label to that used on our genuine Wine Bitters. BE NOT DECEIVED! Send for

NATIVE CALIFORNIA WINE BITTERS.

And you will obtain the same popular beverage so favorably known since 1860. Beware of Counterfeits! Purchasers of our Wine Bitters are requested to observe the familiar yellow label, and see that the words "MERCADO & SEULLY, SAN FRANCISCO," are engraved on the Government stamp pasted over the cork of each bottle. This is the only effectual security against the counterfeiters.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering on a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emission, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania, and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained speedily, apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoe makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupation in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. jy6d4ptf
